ONE WEEK MORE.

This day a week will see seven gorgeous Christmas Trees in different halls, each surrounded by a throng of eager young things, who will wait with rapturous impatience for the presents that are going to be plucked from the fairy branches for Treasures have poured into the office for the equipment of the trees, but there is no danger of an excess in presents. Those who have not yet contributed have a week in which to secure for themselves a feeling of satisfaction at making Christmay Day a joyous one for poor boys and girls, to whom red-letter days like this are rare ones in the calender.

Do not feel that others have done all the good work when you can have a share

THE INFLUENZA SCARE

No doubt the excessive talk about influenza has helped scores of people to the belief that they were victims of this trying epidemic. Imagination is a potent factor in promoting disease. There is undoubtedly some ground for believing that the "grip," after an aristocratic dallying with the Russian Court and several of the crowned heads of Europe, has come to divert itself in a republican quarry.

The last time it made its appearance in this country was in 1869, when it ran principally through the middle section of the country. It was called "Tyler's Grip" then. The symptoms are very much like those which go with fever and ague. Let us hope that we will be let off lightly.

PARNELL AT HOTTINGHAM.

PARNELL made a vigorous speech at Nottingham the other day. He spoke on Home Rule and the Land League. He declared that Ireland must promote her own industries and be free from coercion before she could ever amount to anything. Re mid that Ireland was tranquil now in its confidence in an ultimately triumphant Liberal party, which it looked to Mr. GLADSTONE to secure.

PARNELL WIll visit GLADSTONE at Hawarden after he gets through his work at Nottingham.

If any encouragement were needed by Commissioner Gilboy in his work of removing dangerous electric wires it would be supplied by the ghastly cases which keep recurring.

Toledo has supplied the last horror, almost the counterpart of the Feeks tragedy. A poor lineman was broiled to

Do not flag, Commissioner. Spare not a single dangerous wire.

KEELY, the motor man, is to the fore again. He rings the old changes on his mystic force. The "provisional engine" is being "edjusted," and though the 'graduating process" has not yet secured such results that he can publish them or present his force fully endowed with working power, everything is going on charmingly, and patience is the only virtue the directors and stockholders need

How long this sort of thing can be kept up it is impossible to tell. In the mean time, until Mr. KEELY sings in a new key, the public will turn a deaf ear to his old protestations, which it regards as nothing but monumental "bluff."

A men goes mad and attacks half a dozen men. He is a Danville manufacturer of tobacco and probably the largest individual consumer of chewing tobacco in the country. He used to chew two or three pounds a day.

This only shows the fearful results of excess in anything. Habit is one of the most deadly tyrants,

The Canadian scalers have not been frightened away from their opera-tions in Behring Sea. It is about time that some definite sentiment of this vexing international question should be arrived at. The United States is in the mean time being calmly snubbed by the Dominion of Canada. This is all wrong.

POLITICAL ECHOES.

The withdrawal of Boss Platt's opposition to the appointment of John Wesley Jacobia as United States Marshal is said to have been con-tingent on Senator Evarts agreeing to make no objection to the appointment of ex-Coroner Eidman as Internal Revenue Collector. The Core er is to be rewarded for his stalwart attitude in 1881, when Boss Flatt was dumped into the political soup from which he has since emerged.

Dock Commissioner Matthews 1s just as happy as though he were not to be brought to trial of erious charges before the Mayor. He may guore the old proverb regarding a lawyer being his own client and conducting his own defense He is a lawyer and was at one time the partner of the late Justice Rapallo, of the Court of Ap etary of the old Central Park Commission and afterwards occupied a similar position in the Fark Department. His knowledge of the affairs of that Department will be of material assistance to bis colleague and himself when they investigate the methods of the present ard, which it is alleged they will soon begin

The blade will be of the knest Damascus steel. The handle and guard will be of brass of special design, burnished and handchased, as will also be the maintings upon the scabbard, which will be of steel and nickelplated. The grap will be either or shark-skin or af emboased metal, street-plated and handmaked, the design depending on the rank of the officer receiving it.

The shape of the blade will also depend upon the rank of the tenner; if he is a line officer it will be straight, and if a staff officer it will be a subre and curved in form.

A metallion mounting of burnished and hand-chased metal on the upper part of the enabled will be inscribed with the name of the vinner, with his rank and regiment.

The Plain Truth Is that Hood's Sursaparilla has cured thousands of people who suffered severely with rheumation It neutralizes the lactic acid in the blood, which causes those terrible pains and aches, and also witalisse and surrches the blood, thus preventing the recurrence of the disease. These facts warrant us in arging you, if you at fire with rheumatism, to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. "Having been troubled with inflammatory rheumatism for many years, my favorable attention was called to Hood's Sarsaparilla by an advertisement of cures it had effected. I have now used three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and can already testify to beneficial results. I highly recommend it as a great blood purifier." J. C. AYERS, West Bloomfield, N. Y.

THE BENEFIT AT WORTH'S.

Generous Managers' Efforts Curtailed Only by Inclement Weather. With their characteristic liberality, the proprietors of Worth's Palace Museum, on Fourteenth street, early offered the proceeds of a matinee performance at their house for the benefit of THE EVENING WORLD'S Christmas Tree Fund.

Yesterday was the day selected for the benefit, and the following communication from Messrs. Worth & Huber will show with what success their liberal offer was re-warded.

A Protest Against Brice. [RESCIAL TO THE WORLD.]

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 17 .- A meeting of prominent local Dem crats was held in the office of ex-Congressman Foranthis afternoon to issue a call for a county convention to protest against the election of Mr. Brice as United States Senator. It was decided to hold a mass convention in Music Hall Dec. 23. The call is signed by Mr. Foran, Judge E. J. Blandin, Virgit P. Kline, late candidate in the State Convention for Governor. Tom L. Johnson, who was defeated for Congress tast Fall; Judge Conway W. Noble, Arnold Green, ex-Cierk of the Supreme Court; James Lawrence, ex-Altorney General: Henry Aphorp, ex-Lallway Commissioner; Judge H. C. Banney, ex-Sheriff, A. P. Winslow and others, about thirty in all. The call sets forth that regretable influences have been employed throughout the State in order to induce the Democratic press and members of the General Assembly to elect a man who by residence and associations is not acceptable to the party; and that the only remedy as to hold county gatherings to protest, in the hope that the party may be saved from dishonor, huntilation of the proposed sale of the Senatorship for a mess of pottage. 23. STORY OF THROGG'S NECK. GRAPHICALLY TOLD BY GARDENER

MeINTYRE, OF WEST CHESTER. In the Course of the Story He Relates How Pains Would Shoot Up Over His Eyes, and How He Couldn't Steep at Night Because His Nose Was Stepped Up-The Sequel.

Throgg's Neck and West Chester village are one and the same, in Westchester County, just outside of the city, back of Fort Schuyler Among the beautiful estates is that of Mrs. George T. Eddy, whose late husband was one of the Directors of the Bank of Commerce of this city. Mrs. Eddy's head cardener is John R. McIntyre, a big. good-natured man, whose face is as honest as the sun. Mr. Mc-Intyre has lived in West Chester for the past six years, and every man, woman and child knows him.

JOHN R. M'INTERE. Mr. McIntyre related in an entertaining style to a reporter the following story about himself and Through Neck: "While out in the sait meadows last August I got my feet wet and caught a heavy cold, which developed into catarrh. First one side of my nose stopped up and then the other side, and I couldn't breathe. I got so bad that I couldn's sleep at night. Pains would shoot through my head right over my eyes. There was a constant dropping of phiegm in my throat. I had a general miserable feeling I didn't want to work. I relit like just lying down anywhere.

"Three weeks ago I began to be treated by Drs. McCloy and Wildman, of No 5 East 4'd street. From the first time I was treated I began to feel bester. No more pains. No more dropping of phiegm in my fitnest. I feel like a different man. I am positively satisfied that in one more week or two at the most I will be perfectly cured."

Until the 1st of February Drs. McCoy and Wildman will treat all cases of catarrh and fornish all medicate for $5 a month. of my nose stopped up and then the other side, and

A Wall from the Mound City. St. Louis, Dec. 17 .- "Pro Patria," the plan strongly advocated by Prof. W. E. Ware, of New York, as the best specimen of archiectural beauty and design submitted by contestants for the honor of draughting the plans for a new City Hall, has met a very cool recention by the Building Committee, and there are those who say that the thousand dollars given to the Professor was thrown away. Prof Ware's honesty is not onenly impeached, but many experts who have seen the design declare it is a very common piece of work compared with others that are in the lot.

Serious Charges Filed Against a New

cery Court to-day against V. K. Stevenson, of New York. The bill states that the defendant is engaged in the stock-brokerage business, and as such complainants employed him to buy shares of stock on margins in New York. While acting as such agent, during November, 1889, it is alleged, Stevenson purchased for councilanatus a number of shares of stock of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company. Some of these shares were sold, but on the 27th of that month it is charged that he held for complainants 600 shares of the denomination of $100 each of said stock. There was then due on said stock $24, 147, 40.

This amount was tendered Stevenson and the shares of stock demanded, but Stevenson refused to deliver the same and still retains it. It is charged that the value of the stock is $50, 400, and complainants charge that they have suffered a loss to the extent of $25,852.60, for which they ask yodgment. It is asked in the bill that attachments issue against real estate owned by Stevenson in Davidson, Franklin and Hamilton counties.
